

VARIATION CRITERIA

The variation request must address the following criteria for approval:

1. Whether the general character of the property will be adversely altered.
2. Whether the overall value of the property will be improved and there will not be any potential adverse effects on the neighboring properties.
3. Whether the alleged need for the variation has been created by any person presently having a proprietary interest in the premises.
4. Whether the proposed variation will impair an adequate supply of light and air in adjacent property, substantially increase congestion in the public streets, increase the danger of fire or endanger the public safety.
5. Whether the proposed variation will adversely alter the essential character of the neighborhood.
