V. Old Business

Deputy Chief Cooper gave an update on how the new recruits, John Jump and Keith Keough are doing at the Police Training Institute. He said they are doing very well, and have a very small class size, which is beneficial. He also said that Keith Keough hurt his knee running, but is back to exercising and is doing fine.

Commission Gierut asked about Officer Doug Rumick and Deputy Chief Cooper said he is very active on the force and is doing very well.

The Commission is waiting to hear from City Attorney Murphey on changes to the Rules and Regulations. Deputy Chief Cooper will ask Chief Pavelchik to contact Mr. Murphey and ask the status on the Rules and Regulations.

VI. New Business

Commissioner Gierut said they would discuss NIPSTA (POWER testing company) at the next board meeting. She also said the Board may be doing another testing this fall.

There was no public comment to announce.

VII. Adjournment

A motion was made by Mr. Piccoli to adjourn the meeting and seconded by Ms. Gierut.
The meeting was adjourned at 7:14 p.m.
